Continued from Page 1 (Quince Aventadors)...

Eco Kart is a competition conducted by Gautam Buddha University in Greater Noida. This was the second edition of Eco kart. The primitive stage required preparing a design synopsis, which would cover all the departments of the kart and its required specifications. Preparing the design synopsis was an intricate task which required us to do a market survey on all those equipments we were about to use. After the submission of the design synopsis we had our dates appointed for the virtual round. The total number of teams registered were 90. Out of which only 85 teams were present during the virtual round. During that round a series of questions were asked about the design synopsis we had submitted. A part of the team was present for the virtual round which answered all the questions asked by the authorities. The virtual round results showed that only 37 teams were selected out of the 90 colleges. The core team comprised of D.Satya Teja as the Captain, B.Uday Raj as the Vice Captain, S.Raghavender Reddy as the Kart Driver and myself, as the head team coordinator.

We started with the preparation of a plan on how to proceed with the making of this kart and we started with a time table in that retrospect. The initial stage was buying the base material which had to be shipped from Mumbai. After getting the base metal we had to do several machining operations. The fabrication of the chassis took a while, during which other team members were doing a market survey on all the other essential parts of the kart. We had to prepare a list of the things we needed starting from the basics such as the wheels, hubs, spindles, steering and braking mechanism. After the market survey we brought all the requirements. We worked hard on finding the motor at an affordable price and we took the batteries on rent. Then the assembling of the kart started to take its course. After facing a few hurdles our kart was fully functional. We conducted a few tests on the vehicle which compromised knowing the top speed and braking capacity of the kart. We made required adjustment so that the vehicle could run at its top speed. After finding the results satisfactory we shipped our kart to the venue.

We reached the venue one day before the competition. The competition comprised of four days. The first day we had TI (Technical Inspection) round. In this round they checked all the basic requirements that they had provided in the rule book. The second round conducted that day was the brake test. All the 37 teams that had qualified for the virtual round participated. During the first day only 29 teams got shortlisted... The other teams were disqualified as they couldn't clear the Technical Inspection and Brake Test. The second day consisted of Face off and Turn table. Face off consisted of two teams racing and completing a required task in a given amount of time. Turn table checked the turning capacity of the vehicle. They had points allotted to every round. The third day had Park it up and Autocross as the events. Park it up checked the team coordination and Autocross provided an overall display of all the characteristics of the vehicle. The last day of the competition was for showdown where every vehicle took rounds around the track. The 5th day was for certificate distribution and closing ceremony. We secured the 6th position in this event. This competition provided us with an exposure at a national level. The amount of experience and knowledge we gained during this journey is enormous. We learned team management skills and even time management. We would like to move forward with this experience in our hand, work even harder and try becoming better and better with every step.
